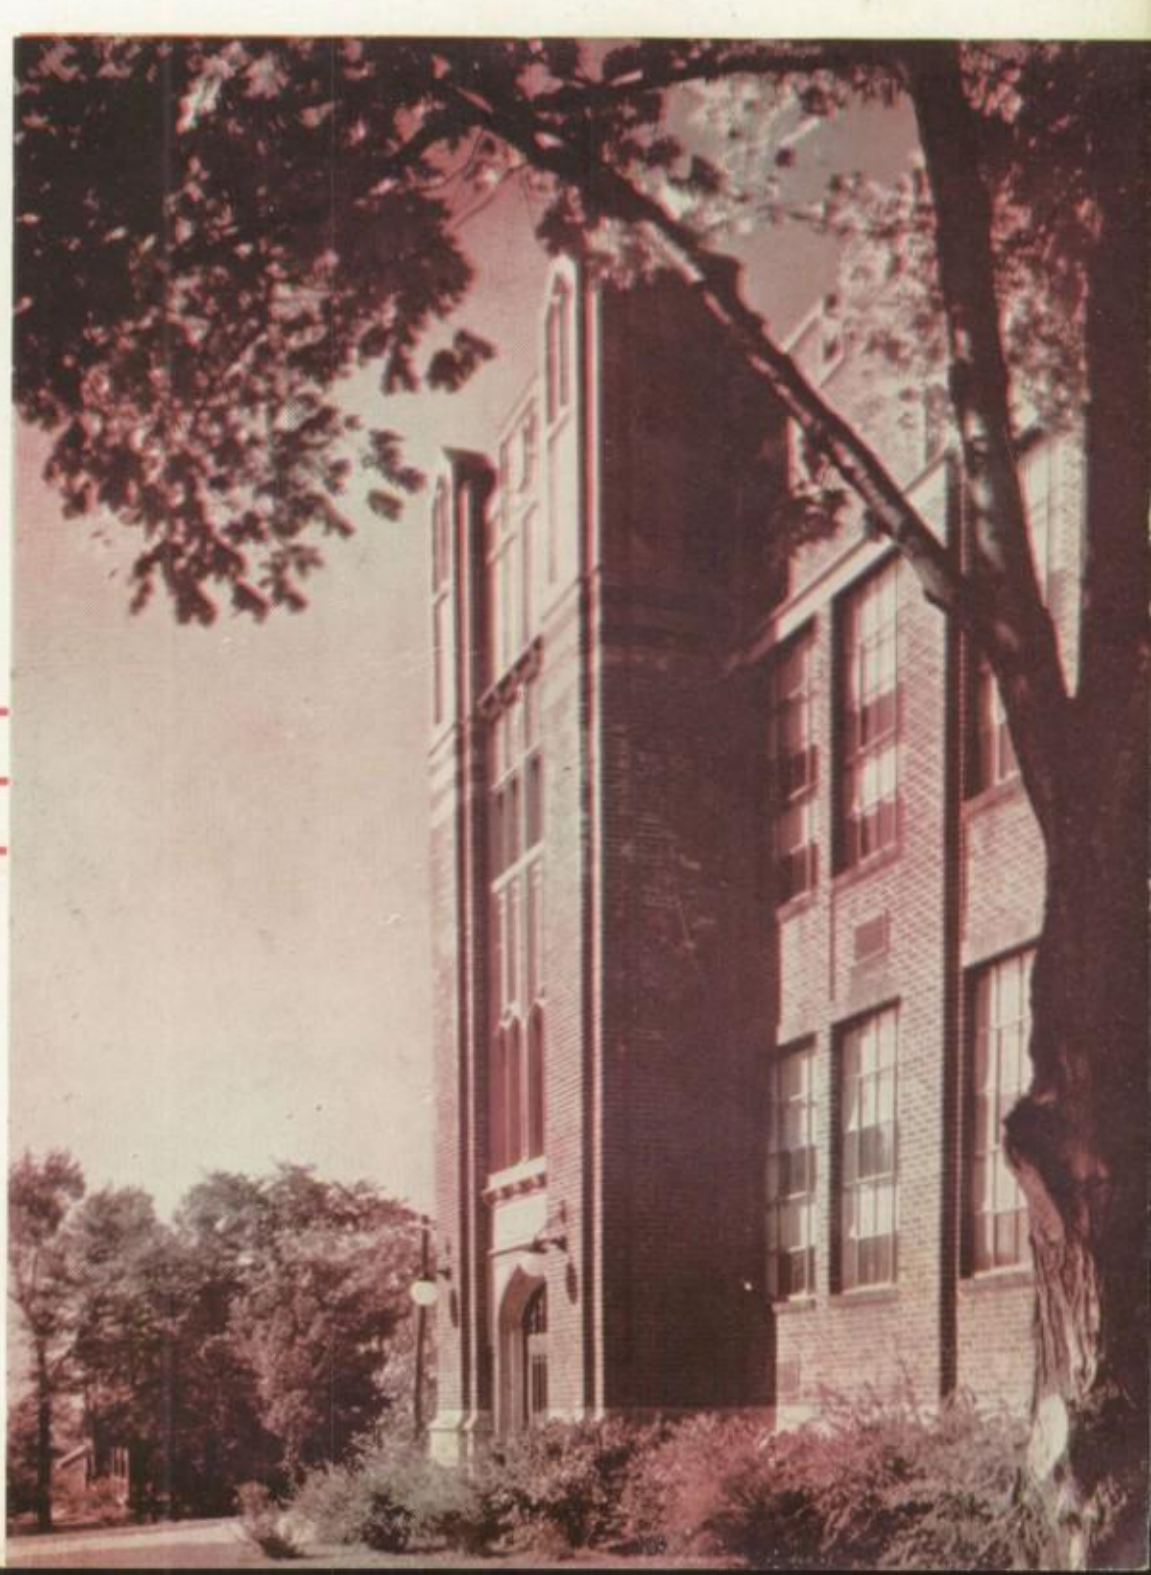
The Oracle of '55



Ebbie Cam Presents . . .

This doll has been chosen to speak for the class of nineteen hundred and fifty-five. Her name, Ebbie Cam, is taken from our Alma Mater, Ebensburg-Cambria. She is the spirit of our school and is found in all that we undertake. Wherever she goes, so follows the Class of 1955, leaving behind this yearbook with its memories of our years at ECHS.

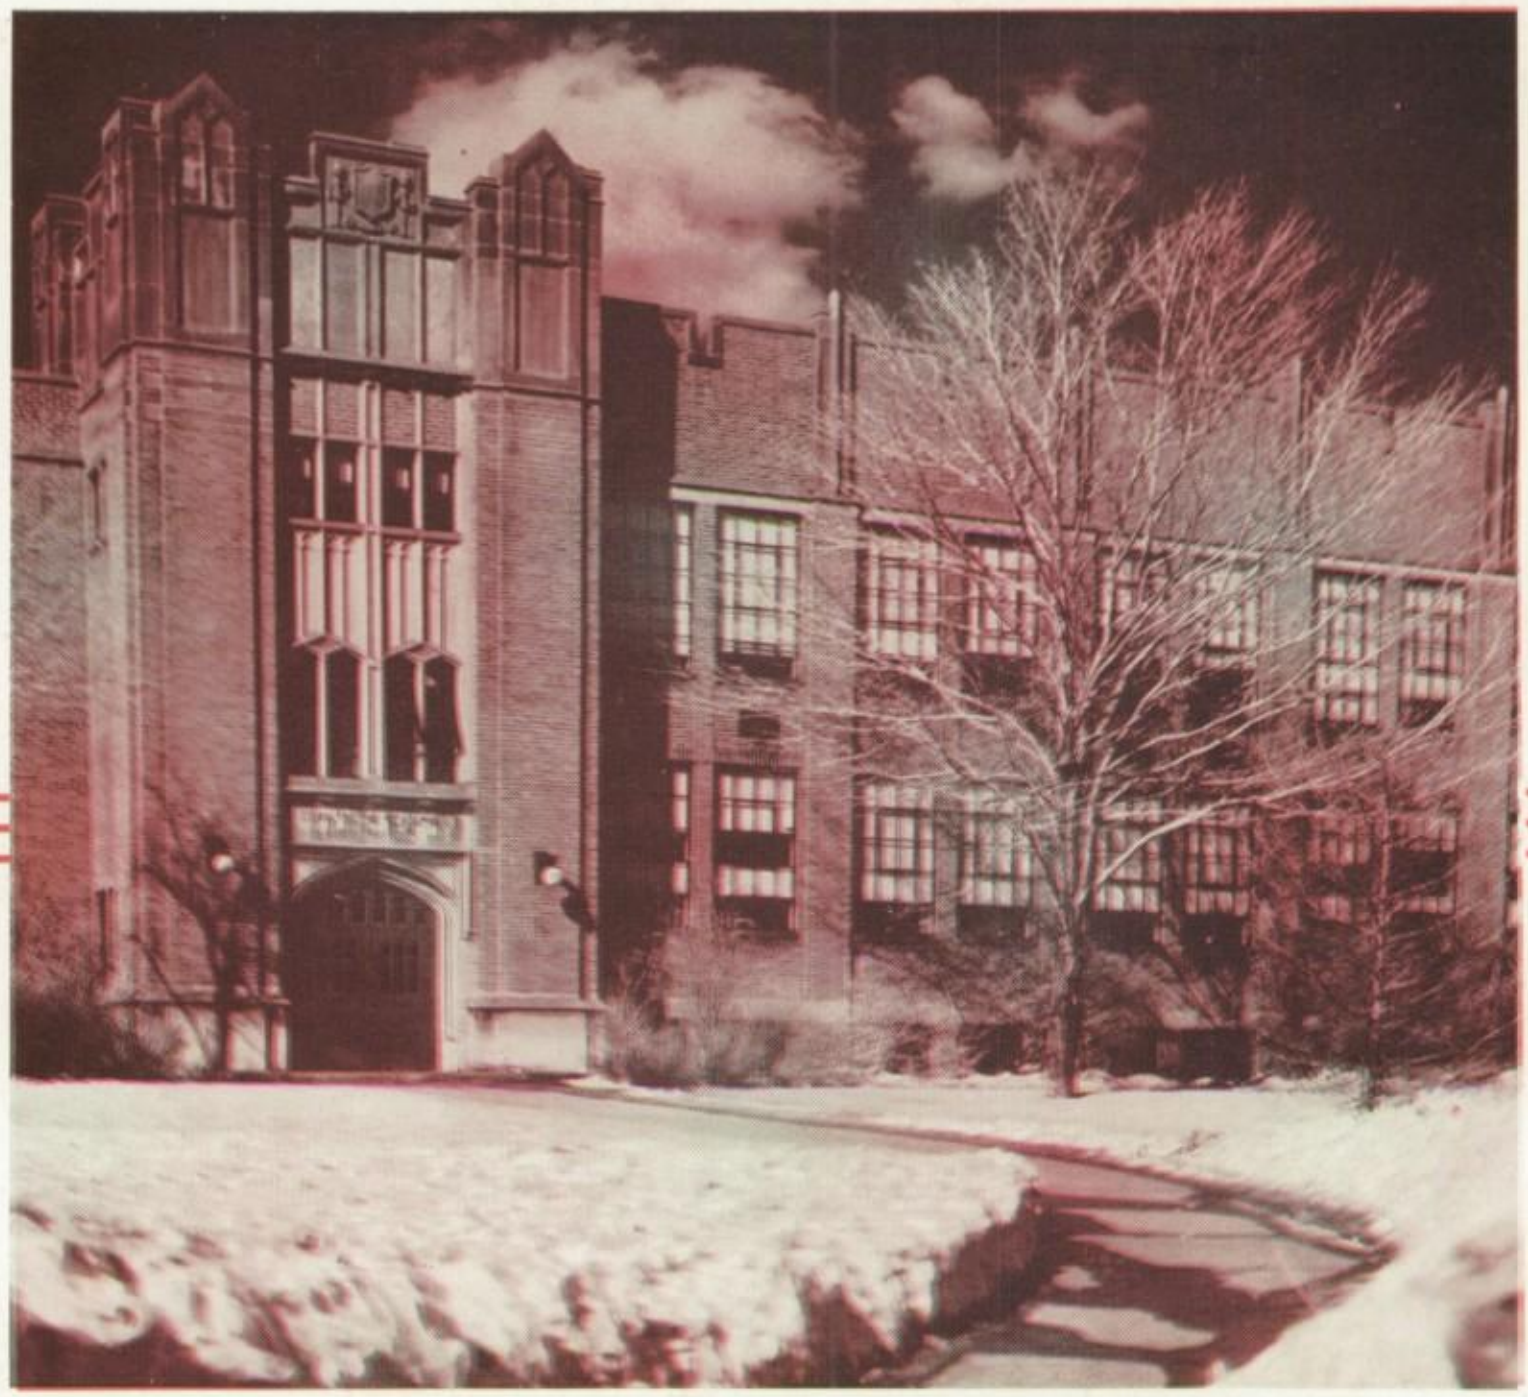
Our Alma Mater



Alma Mater

Atop the verdant Alleghenies
Our high school stands supreme
Whose halls shall in our minds forever
Abide with us, our fondest dream.
To scenes we've learned so much to cherish
'Twill be so hard to say good-bye
As those who pledge with us devotion
To Ebensburg-Cambria High.

Since high school friendships soon will sever
And fade as does the dying day,
New comrades will our lives enlighten
As in the world we wend our way;
And yet whatever be life's fortune
Tho' memory fails, for friends we sigh,
We'll love thee still, Our Alma Mater,
Our Ebensburg-Cambria High.

We Honor

With greatest respect we, the class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-five, dedicate this Oracle to Mr. Donald E. Leffler.

There is a tendency to overlook many qualities of one's teachers during the present, only to realize later in life that these same qualities are those of greatness. However, Mr. Leffler's character as a man, teacher, and friend is quickly appreciated by the students of Ebensburg-Cambria. He has taught and advised many in their problems in chemistry class. He has been most patient, thoughtful, and helpful as a sponsor, leading us through our senior year at ECHS.

We feel that he is a true friend of the students and a typical example of the teacher of today. It is with these thoughts in mind that we dedicate this Oracle to you, Mr. Leffler.

As a teacher, Mr. Leffler is always on hand for a friendly chat. Here he and Fay Freidhoff listen intently as Bruno Chiesa tells them about school in his native Italy.

Presents

Ebbie Cam knows the great help that Miss Dorothy Davis has been to us during our stay at ECHS. Miss Davis is seen on the opposite page in a familiar role. She has the hard task of an attendance director. Here she approves John's excuse as Barbara waits her turn.

Our Administrators

Our School Directors

As we, the seniors, take leave of ECHS, we pause to pay tribute to the Ebensburg-Cambria Joint School Board. To this group goes the credit for the over-all management of our school — its maintenance, curricular program, and social functions. The members of the school board give freely of their time and efforts in order that ECHS may maintain its superior rating. Through their constant efforts, our school is kept up to date with the newest educational methods. The board also see through the hiring of our teachers that we have an adequate and competent faculty to guide our secondary education. To the school board we say, "Thanks for a job well done."

Our Administrator

Mr. E. M. Johnston, supervising principal of ECHS, has sent twenty-five previous classes to take their places in the world. The veteran educator came as principal to Ebensburg-Cambria when the joint school opened in 1929. He previously taught at Saltzburg for four years.

We, the graduates, salute our principal, Mr. Johnston, who for the past four years directed all our school activities — educational and social. Under his guidance we furthered our education and prepared ourselves for the future. Mr. Johnston made it possible for us to participate in many extracurricular activities and to attend various social events. A graduate of Grove City College and the University of Pittsburgh, he has served as head of ECHS for 26 years, and always was ready to lend a helping hand whenever possible. A friend of each graduate, our principal watches with interest the advancement of each student. Through the years his steadfast loyalty to his position and our Alma Mater has never failed.

Classroom

Mr. Ammann, Mr. Bartoletti, Mr. Campbell

Twenty subjects are available for seniors at ECHS, proof of our high scholastic accomplishments. The following pages depict a typical day at Ebensburg-Cambria. First period finds eager musicians awaiting the downbeat from their director, Mr. Gruver. Theadora Hanna and Jim Singer talk with Mr. Gruver before beginning another practice session. Another class taught first period is chemistry. Here Mr. Leffler explains the lesson to David Smith (right) and George Coughlin (left).

Seniors of 1955

Elected by fellow classmates, members of the senior executive committee worked faithfully throughout the year for the good of our class. Members of the representative body are: Row One — Singer, Kepler, Rowland, F. Anderson; Row Two — M. Pryce, Itle, Bright, Dave Booth, Banfield. The group met and debated on many of the class policies.

Many hours were devoted by our class sponsors — Mr. Leffler, Miss Gordon, Mrs. Davis, and Mrs. Flanagan — as we endeavored to carry out our many activities. Our loyal counselors were on hand to advise us on matters such as the ordering of class pictures, announcements, and name cards, and to aid us in our preparations for our Senior Banquet, Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

John, Mary Frances, Barbara, and Mary put their heads together with our editor, Alice, as another idea emerges for our yearbook. Much time and hard work have been devoted by the staff in planning and preparing this, our high school diary.

Artistic-minded students found great opportunity for displaying their talents in our art department. The department, with Miss Lohr directing, sees that the halls are appropriately decorated for each season and that the gym for many dances is festively adorned. Here, Miss Lohr gives senior artists — Bob, Janet, Joann, and Sylvia — pointers for making attractive scrapbook covers.

Best luck to a sweet girl. Have fun always! Betty

Looks

Adding a woman's touch, Joan straightens Ronnie's tie . . . An attractive gal with a flair for fashion, Joan draws many wolf whistles . . . The hearthrob of the fairer sex, Ronnie keeps all the gals sighing.

School Spirit

This spirited guy and gal are faithful rooters for ECHS . . . Our peppy cheerleader captain, "Sally", was an avid participant in all activities . . . Dave, one of our most ardent fans, lent his support to all school functions.

Graduates

Courtesy

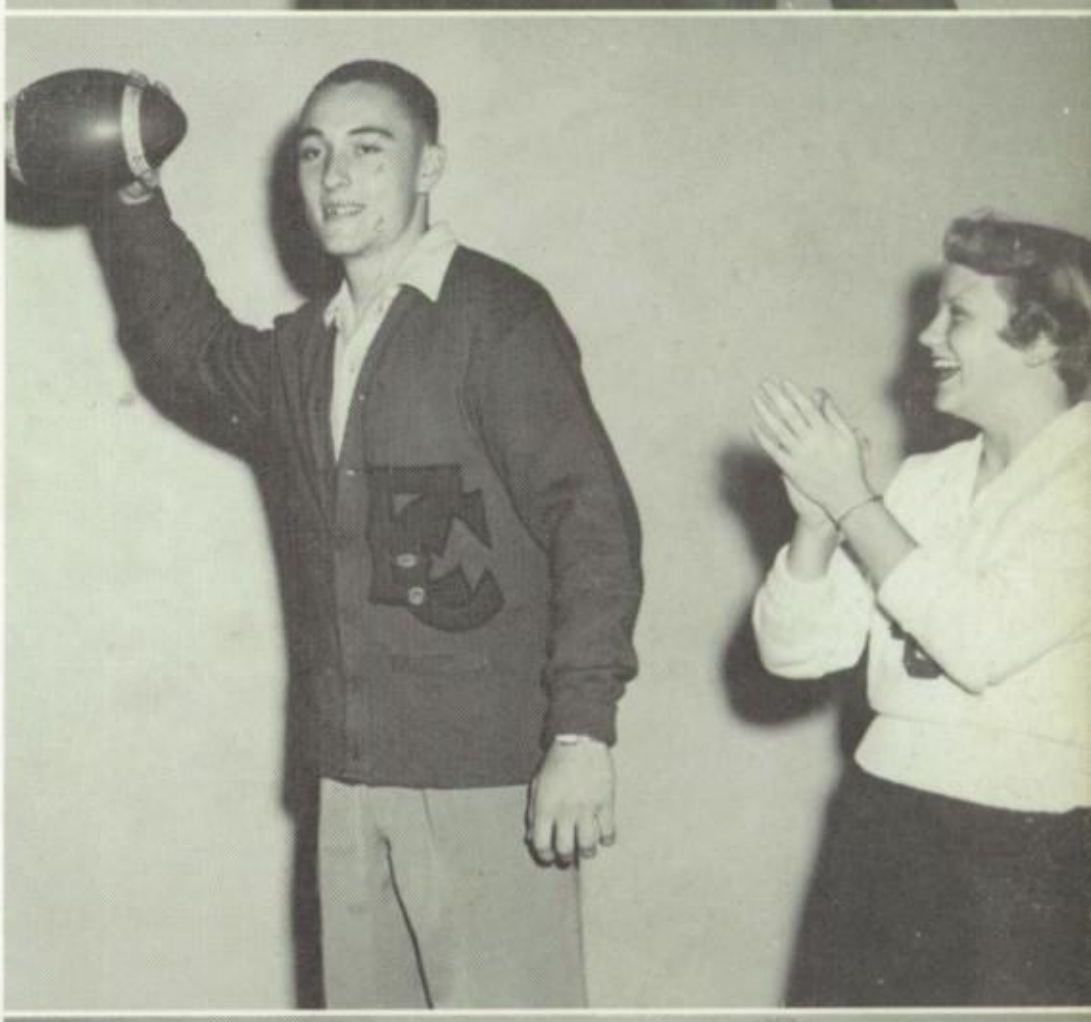
Athletics

Sports star, Ferd, throws a pass to the delight of Margie. As a varsity cheerleader, Margie was always on hand to cheer our team through thick or thin . . . An all-round athlete, Ferd is our choice for All-American.



Entertainment

Class cut-ups, Donna and Jim, are caught in the act . . . Always in the midst of the merriment, "Keppy" is a born comedian . . . That man with the horn, Jim, enchants audiences with his mellow music.

Studies

Honor students, Alice and Bob, check over their assignments . . Alice found time for extra curricular activities, including the yearbook . . . Always ready with the right answer, Bob took time from his studies to win many friends.

Ebbie Cam Presents

Ebbie Cam is proud of these honor students and hopes that the underclassmen will strive to follow their example. She knows that Dolores Burket, Margie Duman, Shirley Graham, Elaine Brown, and Linda Fregly worked hard for those good report cards. They prove the high standards of scholastic ability at E C H S.

Our Classes

Juniors

The junior class, consisting of 175 members, put into effect this past year the motto which was adopted earlier — "Do it now, not later."

Activities of the class ranged from selling peanuts to raise funds for the Junior Prom to producing the annual Junior Play. The sale of peanuts, directed by Mr. Pipas, was held in November and December. Mr. Slick directed the play "Hillbilly Wedding", and it was presented in February. Both of these activities required hard work. However, the vigor with which the juniors carried out these projects shows that the senior class of 1956 will carry on the 26-year-old traditions of E C H S.

Juniors took a prominent part in school activities. Thirteen boys were on the football squad, and seven were on the basketball team. Eighteen of next year's seniors were in the band, and many took part in the choruses and the club activities of the school.

Most of the Juniors — sixty-seven — were enrolled in the academic course, but the commercial department ran a close second with fifty-five. Next came the industrial arts course with thirty-nine enrolled, the home economics course with eight, and the agriculture course with six.

Early in their high school career the present juniors adopted purple and silver as their class colors. This past year they had another happy event when they received their class rings.

The juniors have worked very hard together, and we know they will do the same during their last school year at E C H S.

Many imporatnt plans for the class were laid at meetings by the officers and sponsors of the junior class. The officers were: First Row — Rebecca Jones, treasurer; Betty Angert, assistant treasurer; Rosemarie Sacchet, chaplain; James Moore, president; Second Row — Miss Liphart, Mr. Pipas, Mr. Singel, and Mr. Miller, sponsors; Albena Rossi, secretary; Ann Buffoni, vice president.

Sopho

Life at E C H S was not all work and no play for the 187 members of the class of 1957.

The sophomore class took part in many extracurricular activities. The leaders were sixteen sophomores in band, twenty-five in girls' chorus, and fifteen in the Future Farmers of America. Other sophomores were active in Science Club and various other activities of the school.

Many sophomore boys took an active part in competitive sports. There were fourteen boys on the basketball team and ten boys on the football team.

The commercial course was the most popular course with the sophomores. The commercial department had sixty-four members of the class enrolled, and the academic department was next in popularity with sixty-two members. Other departments followed with thirty-six members in the industrial arts department, fifteen members in the agriculture department, and ten members in the home economics department.

Early in their high school career the class of 1957 selected green and white as their colors and chose "Face the Future with a Smile — Always" as their class motto.

In taking part in many extracurricular and school activities, the sophomore class lived up to their motto. This resulted in the fact that the sophomores enjoyed a very successful year at our school.

Freshmen

This year's freshman class entered the doors of Ebensburg-Cambria High School on August 30, 1954. This class of 247 members at first was bewildered by the many halls, stairs, and doors in our high school, but as the year closed the students are an intricate part of the curricular and extra curricular activities of the school.

On their first day here, Mr. Johnston, following the tradition of our school, gave the freshman class a welcoming speech. The new ECHerS soon had a chance to become acquainted with each other at their first class meeting.

The freshman class was well represented in each of the courses offered at Ebensburg-Cambria. There were nearly one hundred freshman students in the academic course, fifty-eight in the commercial department, ten boys in the agricultural course, sixty-five boys in the industrial arts course, and all the freshman girls took home economics their first year.

Besides being well represented in the various courses at our school, the class of 1958 took an active part in the different clubs and other activities. There were eighteen freshman members in band, thirty-eight in freshman chorus, many freshman girls in Tri-Hi-Y's, seventeen in Arts and Crafts Club. Two wrote for the Spirit, and twenty were on the football squad and seventeen on the basketball team.

If the freshmen are as successful during the remaining years at Ebensburg as they were during their first year, we can be proud to say they were students of E C H S.

Ebbie Cam

Presents

Ebbie Cam is always in attendance at our activities ranging from formal dances to class plays, and she has kept them alive with her zeal and enthusiasm. Behind the scenes, to make our production successful, are these industrial art students. Bernard, John, Jim, Bob, Jim, and Bill work with Mr. Dugoni on a stage setting.

Our Activities

Activities

Activities play an important role in each student's life at ECHS. Crowning of the May Queen is a yearly highlight, and shown above is the 1954 court as Betty Scanlan and Joan Jenkins represented the Class of 1955. Class plays also are at the tops of the list of activities with the annual junior class play and senior class play. Here Marlene and Evalyn, student directors of the comedy "Lights Out," discuss the play with Miss Gordon. At Christmas time the annual pageant is presented, and this year Ruth Ann took the part of the Madonna.

Student Council

"This meeting will now come to order!" Thus President Dick Booth opens another meeting of the student government body. Organized in 1924 by Mr. Thornton, the Student Council is now under the capable direction of Mr. Johnston. The organization consists of four freshmen, five sophomores, six juniors, and seven seniors, who are elected by their respective classes. The main work includes sponsoring assembly programs, supervising hall patrol, and approving student activities. Members of the Student Council this past year were: Row One — DeRubis, R. Booth (president), Mr. Johnston, Jervis (secretary), N. Duman (treasurer), Bright, Peduzzi, A. Griffith; Row Two — Plummer (vice president), Gorman, Giovacchini, Batista, Lagana, Kushner, F. Shields, Sutilla, Smathers, J. Paul, V. Stoy, Durbin; Absentee — Scanlan.

Dramatics

Cast of the senior play, "Lights Out," consisted of: Row One — Anderson and Smathers; Row Two — Shields, Fregly, and Burket; Row Three — Pryce, Singer, Evanchick, Bright, Hildebrand, and Leahey.

On December 2 and 3, the Class of 1955 took pride in presenting "Lights Out," a three-act mystery-comedy. The cast, which consisted of eleven members, worked diligently to produce the play. However, there were many unseen persons who helped tremendously in making the venture a success. Much of the credit goes to Miss Gordon, who patiently supervised and directed the play.

The cast and the parts which they played were as follows: Alice Bright, Agnes Harwood; Barbara Smathers, Doris Harwood; Ferd Shields, Carl Emerson; Eleanor Pryce, Vicky Wayne; Linda Fregly, Helen Freeland; James Singer, John Bates; Dolores Burket, Susan Bates; Fred Anderson, Niel Parker; Don Hildebrand, William Patterson Vaughn; Patty Evanchick, Ella Tucker; Joseph Leahey, Benny King; Robert Shea, The Voice.

Margie and Elaine were in charge of make-up for the play. Ferd, Eleanor, and Dolores were some of their victims. Patty Jones and Ethel Johnston were responsible for getting the necessary properties for the production.

Best of luck in the future. Paul

Lots of luck
Best of Benny

Christmas Pageant Cast: Chervenic, Bartocci, Bracken, Bednar, Aroney, Jones, Molnar, Tsakilas, and Rager. Junior Play Cast and Crew: Row One — Ceresa, Cessna, Crissey, Tibbott; Row Two — Stinson, Ninno, Stephens, Jervis, Little; Row Three — Evans, Sidone, Ponchione, Levenduski, Rodgers, and James

One of the greatest honors for a senior is to be selected to take part in the annual Christmas pageant. This year the honors of Madonna went to Ruth Ann Aroney, and Robert Bednar was selected to play the part of Joseph. From the balcony came the inspiring carols sung by the choruses and the Nativity story read by David Booth and Frances Mentch. The production was supervised by Miss Gordon and Mr. Gruver.

During February there was an atmosphere of backwoods within our halls. The junior class proved themselves worthy Thespians on February 16 and 17 with their presentation of "Hillbilly Weddin" directed by Mr. Slick.

General Assemblies were held on the first Friday of the month during the past year. Programs were given by the commercial, guidance, social studies, science, art, English, industrial arts, agriculture, home economics, and music departments. Also for our enjoyment were singing assemblies, student council programs, and movies.

Students at ECHS also had an opportunity to develop their talents by taking part in forensic competition. Blanche Hayes represented our school in the county "I Speak for Democracy" contest. The following took part in forensics: Rose Cohen and Dorothy Freidhoff, Shakespearean reading; Alvin Evans and Thomas Shields, serious declamation; Barbara Miller and Jack Hill, radio speaking; Vonda Martin, poetry reading; Barbara Sherron, Peggy Lauver, humorous declamation; Blanche Hayes, Terry Kirkpatrick, and Patricia Little, original oration.

The Spirit

Best of luck to you Shirley. Remember the fun we had in World History class. Dee

Off the presses rolled more successful editions of the school paper during the past school term. The staff worked hard to edit a better-than-ever Spirit, which for the first time held membership in the National Scholastic Press Association.

Reporters were Mary Jane Aitken, Lucille Anderson, Janet Wright, Barbara Kenny, Rae Ann Lesser, Eugene Bodnar, Donna Long, Jeannette Prentice, Shirley Stinson, Betty Lou Wasser, and Ruth Manion. Typists were Hanna Klayko, Wanda Gillin, and Jane White.

All members of the group were enrolled in the journalism class which was taught by Mrs. Murphy. The class also was in charge of publicity for the school. The many financial problems were handled by a group under the supervision of Mr. Slick.

Leaders of The Spirit discuss an important publication problem. They are Lucia DeRubis, managing editor; Mr. Slick, adviser; Barbara Smathers, editor-in-chief, and Mrs. Murphy, adviser.

Handbook

The Handbook, which is published every two years, is an excellent guide to the freshmen and new students at Ebensburg-Cambria High School. It is an exposition of school life, containing the Alma Mater, pep cheers, the school schedule and curricula, the various courses offered, and many other helpful hints for the ECHS student.

Miss Jones supervises the production of the Handbook, and much of the work is done by the commercial students. The class this year did an outstanding job for our school, and much credit should be given to Miss Jones and her pupils for their time and effort on the Handbook and other typing needs this year.

These same students did excellent work when they typed material for this yearbook, for The Spirit, and for class play programs.

The Oracle

Oracle leaders discuss the lay-out for the 1955 edition. They are Jack McKinnon, art editor; Mr. Stevens, general adviser; Alice Bright, editor-in-chief, and Barbara Smathers, associate editor.

This is indicated by the fact that more than 370 pictures, containing about 3,000 faces, were taken for this year's book. The literary staff, which is responsible for the publication, prepared enough copy to require 240 hours of typing.

All of this work was in charge of Alice Bright and Barbara Smathers, literary editors, and Jack McKinnon, art editor. Mr. Stevens served as general adviser of the book.

The business and circulation staffs were under the direction of Mr. Stormer, capable financial adviser. More than $700 in funds were raised by contributions from 82 sponsors and 108 patrons. The staff also raised $1,500 by selling nearly 600 copies of the book to students and members of the faculty. The senior class itself contributed a large sum for the production of the book.

Senior students of the art department with Miss Lohr's help and advice worked hand-in-hand with the literary staff for layout effectiveness. Miss Jones, head of the commercial department, co-operated with the Oracle Staff to make the typing room available to prepare copy for the printer. Mrs. Gruver and the home economics students made the activity outfits for Ebbie Cam.

The music department of E C H S, under the leadership of Mr. Gruver, is one of the best organized groups in the school. It consists of the marching, concert, and dance bands, the girls', mixed, and freshman choruses, and the girls' ensemble.

With snappy red and black uniforms and shiny horns, the band performed at half time during football season and on many civic occasions. Adding to this organization were the twelve majorettes. At the end of football season the band settled down to prepare for a spring concert.

Music for all occasions was provided by the vocal groups in the school. The annual Christmas pageant was the traditional appearance of the choruses when they sang during the nativity tableau presented on the stage. They also presented a spring concert and assisted at Baccalaureate services in May. The girls' chorus and the mixed chorus entered into Forensic competition.

The freshman chorus consisting only of girls is aimed to train interested girls for chorus work for the following years at E C H S.

Such a department as this would not be possible if it were not for Mr. Gruver, our able leader, the officers of the various organizations, and the co-operation of the participating students and the student body.

Girls' Ensemble

A Girls' Ensemble was reorganized this year after a lapse of a year. Under the direction of Mr. Gruver, these girls combined their talents to sing for school and civic organizations. Bridge Club

Dramatics Club

Bridge Club, under the direction of Miss Liphart, was established this past school year. The club teaches the members to play bridge so that they might be able to make profitable use of their leisure time in life. Elected by the members to serve as officers were David Booth, president; Mary Aroney, secretary, and Lillian Cleaver, treasurer. Dramatics Club was another club organized during the past year. Under the direction of Mrs. Flanagan and Mr. Gaynor, the club aimed to give its members that self-confidence which one gains by appearing before an audience. Officers were James Singer, president, and Barbara Ann Robinson, secretary-treasurer. Camera Club, as the name indicates, aimed to show its members the basic principles of taking and developing pictures. It was established this year by Mr. Stormer, Mr. Slick, Mr. Semyan, and Mr. Singel. Officers were Raymond Johnson, president; Betty Scanlan, vice president; William Clymire, secretary; Robert Ott, treasurer, and John Rantovich, sergeant-at-arms.

Tawasi Club, sponsored by Mrs. Gruver, was an organization for home economic students according to the regulations of the State and National Future Homemakers of America. Its main activity was packing Thanksgiving baskets for needy families. Officers were Nancy Bolinger, president; Margaret Williams, vice president; Eleanor Jones, secretary; Nancy Hagens, treasurer, and Virginia Branas, chaplain. Industrial Arts Club, established five years ago, has service to the school as its main objective. Forming the executive committee are William Mackel, president; Roger Seese, vice president; George Ball, secretary, and Kevin LaJudice, treasurer. Club sponsors are Mr. Dugoni and Mr. Farabaugh. A part of this club was the stage crew consisting of six senior boys who made stage scenery for plays and assemblies. Key Club, another school service organization, was under the direction of Mr. Ammann, and its main objective was to develop leaders for the community. Its members consisted of seniors, juniors, and sophomores. Leaders of the group this past year were Edward Sutilla, president; Ronald Lash, vice president; Richard Booth, secretary; Fred Anderson, treasurer, and John Maxwell, chaplain.

Key Club

Varsity Club

Leader Club

Varsity Club was composed of ECHS athletes who earned a letter in a major sport. To gain membership a boy must have played in at least one half of the quarters in football or basketball or must have earned one point in track. Sponsored by Mr. Cook, the Varsity Club's main activity is the annual May Day coronation and dance. Leader Club has as its aim promotion of good sportsmanship. The twenty-five junior and senior girls were sponsored by Mrs. Lease, and club activities consisted of sponsoring intramural volleyball and basketball games for girls. The Hobo Hop and Topsy Turvy also were activities of the club. Officers were Sylvia Peduzzi, president; Joan Jenkins, vice president; Betty Buffoni, secretary, and Nancy Paul, treasurer. Art Club since 1948 has been carrying on activities to improve the art department. Proceeds from all the activities of the club were used to buy art equipment. Officers this past year were Donna Kepler, president; Jack McKinnon, vice president; Lillian Cleaver, secretary; Barbara Miller, treasurer, and Miss Lohr and Mr. Ammann, sponsors.

Art Club

Arts and Crafts Club

Art and Crafts, established this year, furnishes art experience to the students who otherwise would not have the opportunity to obtain it. Officers were George Seese, president; Helen Shaffer, vice president; Catherine Storm, recording secretary; Suellen Salkeld, corresponding secretary, and Donald Welchko, treasurer. Miss Lohr was the sponsor of this freshman group. Alpha and Beta are the oldest of the four Tri-Hi-Y groups in the school. They are service organizations, dedicated to the home, school, and community. Alpha dates back to 1932, and Beta was organized in 1937. Officers of the Alpha club were Barbara Smathers, president; Connie Swineford, vice president; Beverly Arford, secretary; Rosemarie Sacchet, treasurer, and Blanche Hayes, chaplain. The club, sponsored by Mrs. Davis, holds the annual Pigskin Turkey Dance. Beta's 1954-1955 officers were Donna Kepler, president; Lillian Cleaver, vice president; Evelyn Bono, secretary; Janice Rowland, treasurer, and Loumella Tononi, chaplain. Under the supervision of Mrs. Murphy, club sponsor, activities for St. Joseph's Orphanage are Beta's outstanding service.

Lots of success to a swell classmate and fellow club member. Good luck. Sally

Junior Science Club

Junior Science Club, sponsored by Mr. Pipas and Mr. Krumenaker, was started in 1948, and its chief goal is to understand science in daily living. Elected to the executive board were Shirley Stinson, president; Francis Evans, vice president; Joyce Watkins, secretary; Dorothy Freidhoff, treasurer; Penny Lydic, reporter, and Betty Kischel, chaplain. Delta and Gamma, our two junior Tri-Hi-Y clubs, were established in 1952. Their motto — to seek, to find, and to share — accounts for the success of their activities. Delta's executive committee consisted of Alice Bright, president; Janet Rice, secretary; Frances Mentch, treasurer; Shirley Davis, chaplain, and Miss Evans, adviser. Activities of the club centered around the County Home and Children's Home. Gamma's officers were Sylvia Peduzzi, president; Beverly Stephens, vice president; Betty Ann Kohute, secretary; Barbara Ann Robinson, treasurer; Mary Sue Pryce, chaplain, and Miss Gordon, adviser. These girls conducted programs at the county home and sold Easter lillies.

Library Club

Library Club, under the guidance of Miss Englehart, was formed in 1953. To achieve its purpose of creating interest in reading, members gave reports at each monthly meeting. Officers of the club were Joan Bisco, president; Ida Vicini, vice president; Albena Rossi, secretary; Jeannette Prentice, treasurer, and Donna Bowers, reporter. Future Farmers of America, established in 1929, is sponsored by Mr. Campbell. The boys compete in local and state contests and hold a father-son banquet each year. Leading the group were Wendell Hunt, president; Donald Mayer, vice president; Robert Frick, secretary; Edward Dishart, treasurer; Maurice Rich, sentinel; Fred Wyland, chaplain, and Jack Hill, reporter. Archery Club was started this year because of an increased interest in this sport. It was directed by Mr. Bartoletti, Mr. Miller, and Mr. Gruver, and the officers were Thomas Bracken, president; Robert Vicini, vice president; and Theodore Stoy, secretary-treasurer. Team captains were Joseph Licastro, David Smith, and Joseph Stinson.

Projectionist Club

The Projectionist Club, under the direction of Mr. Thornton, was established this past year to train students in the proper use of the movie machines. Serving as officers were Ernest Hughes, president; Jack Hill, vice president; Edward Dushaw, secretary, and Tim Szafranski, treasurer. Rifle Club, another newly established organization, is the largest club in the school. Officers elected by the members were Edward Rylke, president; Daniel Albright, vice president; Shirley Stinson, secretary, and James Sichko, sergeant-at-arms. Safe handling of rifles and imporved marksmanship are the objective of the club supervised by Mr. Cook, Mr. Meehan, and Mr. Leffler.

VARSITY FOOTBALL PLAYERS

As the football season rolled around, the outlook for a successful year was bright. The football players began the season with two weeks of football camp held at Ebensburg-Cambria High School.

At the beginning of the season, Ed Sutilla was appointed captain. He accepted the responsibilities that were placed on him and did an excellent job of pulling the team over some rough spots.

Although the team was plagued by injuries, the varsity won six games and lost only three games. The victories were over Conemaugh, Punxsutawney, Cresson, Portage, Westmont, and Indiana, and the losses were to Conemaugh Township, Shade Township, and Hollidaysburg.

Ferdinand Shields of the Red Devil varsity squad was given the honor of being placed on the Johnstown Tribune-Democrat All-Star Team, and Sutilla and Makin received honorable mention.

One thing must be pointed out. Our boys proved themselves a worthy and hard-hitting team even though they were not lucky to win all of their games. This year was one of the roughest schedules the "Red Devils" have ever faced.

The "Red Devil" Junior Varsity team, trained by Coach Bartoletti, won their only game, which was against Portage, by a score of 19 to 7.

The Little Red Devils, or freshman team, also deserve credit. The Freshies won all but one of their games. The wins were over Lilly and Nanty Glo, and the loss was to Indiana.

The school cannot give credit to just one or two of the players on the teams but must give credit to the whole football squad, team work and cooperation combined gave our school our fine record.

The football managers — Jack Piercy and John Rantovich — have also shown a splendid interest in their work by keeping the equipment in tip-top shape. The team couldn't have gotten along without them.

Freshman Football Team

Eleven teammates of the Devil squad, who formed the nucleus of the '54 squad, hung up their football uniforms this year. These fast, hard-hitting fellows put team ahead of self as they strove to bring victory to E C H S. Captained by Ed Sutilla, they were in there blocking, passing, running — playing their hearts out for their team. Weeks of long, hard practice paid dividends as the '54 gridiron season rolled to a close with a 6-3 record. Headwork combined with playing skill enabled the boys to go so far. Let us pay tribute to our loyal "Red Devils" — Tibbott, Rech, Sutilla, Beba, Shields, Rager, La Judice, Anderson, Bartocci, Makin (absent), and Mandes (absent). Win or lose, the fellows were out there trying with never dying loyalty to their Alma Mater.

Shields is off to a fine start. It looks like he's out for another touchdown . . . Rager plows ahead for yardage in the Hollidaysburg game . . . Atta boy, Ferd, get him down! Shields dropped this player at Conemaugh . . . "Tiger" Bartocci throws a beautiful block to add to our team's victory . . . Rech (54) rips off more turf against Conemaugh Twp. . . . There go Long and Makin "smearing" one of our unfortunate foes . . . There's Ferd again, racing for the hard-earned goal-line . . . Anderson and Long get together for a neat "plow" . . . Ferd gains more yardage against Cresson . . . There goes Ferd in the most interesting part of the Hollidaysburg game — he's off for a needed touchdown . . . Anderson (58) prepares to run back the punt . . . Lapczynski (56), La Judice (30) and Anderson (58) help Bowman.

The cheerleaders, our peppiest gals at the football and basketball games, proved themselves to be successful by winning third place in the annual cheerleading contest held at Ferndale. The girls, both of the Varsity and Junior Varsity, work exceptionally hard and deserve much credit for their accomplishments. It takes hours upon hours of good hard practice to have the fine squads of cheerleaders we had this year. Besides leading cheers, our cheerleaders held pep assemblies at noon and held dances after the games. This year four varsity members will be graduating — Marjorie Duman, Betty Ann Kohute, Sandra McChain, and Elaine Brown, captain. Their sponsor, Mrs. Lease, also deserves much credit for the good showing our cheerleaders made this year.

Anderson and Sutilla were two of the main springs of the ECHS courtmen this year. Anderson was one of the high scorers on the team.

Besides football and basketball, minor sports also play an important role in the never-ending series of school activities. However, because of the large number of students who are transported to ECHS, minor sports are hampered to a great extent.

Among the most important of the minor sports is track. Our students have an opportunity to be coached in the pole vault, javelin and discus throw, racing, and other track events. Last spring our boys took part in one track meet in which they won the relay race.

For girls, after school sports included the volleyball and basketball intramural leagues. The school administration and members of the faculty helped to promote these events in the interest of good sportsmanship and good athletics.

Appreciation

These are some of the many persons who helped us to get an education, and especially were they helpful to the seniors in putting out The 1955 Oracle. Pictured are Mr. Leffler, Mr. Johnston, Mrs. Gruver, Mr. Stormer, and Miss Lohr.

The senior class expresses its sincere appreciation to all who have helped in the publication of The 1955 Oracle.

We thank especially Mr. Johnston, who gave his complete co-operation in the undertaking; Mr. Leffler, our class sponsor; Mrs. Gruver, who made the clothes for Ebbie Cam; Mr. Stormer, financial adviser, and Miss Lohr, art and layout adviser. We are grateful to Mr. Stevens for his leadership as literary and technical adviser to The Oracle.

We wish also to thank the Henry's Studio, Cresson, for the protography; Zimmerman Engraving Company, Sykesville, for the engraving, and Kurtz Bros., Clearfield, for printing and binding. Much of the credit for our book must go to these firms for their helpful technical advice and fine co-operation.

To the members of the faculty, the students, the sponsors, and patrons, we express thanks for their co-operation in the publication of The Oracle. Their support made the book possible.

As we say farewell to high school, we say a sincere "Thank you" to all who made our education possible.

Class of 1955

Hi Kathy,

Here we are going to be Seniors. It just doesn't seem right, does it? Remember all the fun we had in homeroom and all our classes. And especially at the Prom. I'll never forget that night. Hope we have just as much fun at the Portage Prom, don't you? Boy Mike is such a doll- if he goes to see you and this summer at the skating rink. Boy there are some lonely. I hope to see you at the service, I'll be so-o-o there, I'll never forget. You probably have some real good nights up you won't neither. I sure hope (you know what I mean?) Please excuse this terrible writing but I don't have a very good place to write. Whatever you do, don't tell what I told you, he wants to know so bad. Always remember our dear old Bkg. and World History classes, the fun we had. I think Mr. DeBastiani is glad he's getting rid of us. were driving him crazy, I think. Paper is getting low so I'll say so-long for now. Take care of Mickey and treat him right.

Evie & Mike

Dear Shirley,
Remember the good times we had together, Mickey, Joe, you and I. I'll never forget that. Remember the time we went to White Mill with those guys, Going swimming!!!!!
I never had so much fun as I did with you and Mickey. Have fun in the future. Take good care of Mickey.
Love always,
Donna
